Press Producers

I would like to thank all of those who worked on and participated in our campaign to raise finances for Borderless Butterflies: Earth Haikus and Other Poems / Mariposas sin fronteras: Haikus terrenales y otros poemas by Francisco X. Alarcón. Thanks to James Downs, Devon Peterson, and Joyce Downs. A special thanks to Francisco for the opportunity to work on this beautiful book; to Manuela Vargas Fernández for her fine video work and Javier Pinzón for his hospitality. And of course, thanks to all of these people who contributed so generously to this effort.

Small poetry press publishing is a joy to do but certainly costs money and these Producers, like in any artistic effort, are the ones who make it possible.

Thank you!

– John Peterson, Publisher
